Here's an example of Massachusetts youth soccer players playing on the Gillette Stadium turf, the home of the New England Revolution. It's always a fun, annual event, and this Saturday, June 14, Winchester Youth Soccer players will once again join their soccer brothers and sisters throughout the state to participate in it, followed by watching the Revolution take on their Eastern Conference rival FC Cincinnati in a Major League Soccer (MLS) game, starting at 7:30 p.m. COURTESY PHOTO/NEW ENGLAND REVOLUTION

This Saturday, June 14, Major League Soccer's (MLS) New England Revolution is hosting Winchester Youth Soccer Day at Gillette Stadium, where youth soccer players from Winchester and many other communities across Massachusetts will play against one another on the Gillette turf in head-to-head contests.

Families and friends are invited to come out and cheer them on. There are at least 300 members of the Winchester community alone already coming out to support their local youth teams. After the games, players and their families will have the opportunity to watch the Revolution take on their Eastern Conference rival FC Cincinnati in an MLS game at 7:30 p.m.

Winchester residents who still want to come out and support their local teams play at Gillette on Saturday may purchase group tickets by contacting by email GroupSales@revolutionsoccer.net or calling 508-384-4318. Your support will also help the Massachusetts Youth Soccer community in general.
